

WILL SECURE NEW FACTORY FOR NEWARK

Board of Trade Arranges
For Site On James Street

AN EXTENSIVE CONCERN

Will Manufacture Oil and Gas Tools and Supplies—Will Start at Once.

Through the instrumentality of the Board of Trade, Newark is soon to boast of a new industry.

Tuesday the officials of the Rigby & Frazier Company, manufacturers of oil and gas well tools and supplies, were in the city mapping out the details for the construction of a suitable building to be erected for their factory, on the site which has been leased by them, on James street, West Newark, next the P. C. C. & St. L. tracks.

The Rigby-Frazier company has manufacturing plants at Norwalk and New Martinsville, W. Va., and is an extensive concern whose output is handled by the National Supply company, one of the greatest general supply firms for oil and gas people.

A large tract of ground in West
Newark, belonging to the Newark Bent Works, has been leased by the company, with the privilege of buying later if desired. On this ground the company will at once proceed to erect factory buildings and it will be but a short time until the machinery is in operation and the concern employing from thirty to fifty men, as the business progresses.

Mr. Rigby of the company, is the patented of a number of very modern articles in the way of oil and gas supplies and tools and these articles will be manufactured here also.

Another good boost from Newark's wide-awake Board of Trade! One more good, live industry is added to the city's already extensive manufacturing interests, and promising to give employment to a number more of men, the new concern—for Newark—will doubtless be as good as its word, as its prosperity in Norwalk, O., and New Martinsville, W. Va., has shown.

DUKE HELD MANY OFFICES

Died at Cannes, France, of Heart
Failure—One of England's Wealthiest Peers.

London, March 24.—The Duke of Devonshire is dead at Cannes, France, of heart failure. He had immense land estates in England and wide business interests and was among the wealthiest of British peers. He held the offices of lord admiral, secretary of state, postmaster general, chief secretary for Ireland, secretary of state for India and lord president of the council.

WAR BETWEEN SENATORS ALDRICH AND LA FOLLETTE

Nothing Like It in the Senate Since the Days of Blaine and Conkling.

Washington, March 24.—By remaining in his seat throughout the greater part of the session of the Senate Saturday, Senator LaFollette prevented Senator Aldrich from executing a carefully prepared coup, in which he expected to pass all of his amendments to his emergency currency bill in order to put Senator LaFollette in the position of speaking against something which had already passed the Senate, if not to prevent him from completing his speech altogether.

Senator Aldrich arranged the plan on Thursday, and is understood to have said he would put these amendments through if Senator LaFollette should be absent. The latter learned of the plan, however, and remained in his seat throughout the day, an unusual thing for him. Consequently the amendments were not called up.

Not since the bitter rivalry between Senator Blaine and Roscoe Conkling has there been such an evidence of bitterness as at present between Aldrich and LaFollette. Senator Aldrich does not like the direct, and oft times sneering, manner in which the "Fighting Bob" of the Senate attacks him. The reference of the Wisconsin senator to the presence of J. Pierpont Morgan in the senators' gallery on the day Senator Aldrich made his speech opening the debate on his currency bill made him exceedingly angry, and he is determined that henceforth LaFollette shall be a political outcast in the Senate as far as his influence on the Republican side is concerned.

But Senator LaFollette intends to continue his attacks upon Aldrich through the rest of the session.

FLOP TO ROOSEVELT PREDICTED IF TAFT MEETS WITH DEFEAT

Boston, March 24.—In a summary of the political situation, the Boston Post says Taft has 404 of the 580 delegates to the Chicago convention and that the opinion is growing steadily that Roosevelt will be nominated if Taft fails. Hughes is credited with only 104 apparent delegates. Fairbanks with but 42, Knox with 68, La-Follette with 20, and Cannon with 58.
Foraker is credited with 174 in 8 contested southern states.

Evidence that the Taft men are fully prepared to swing to Roosevelt, the paper says, came to light in a conversation between two delegates from Congressman Gardner's district, and predictions are now made that resolutions for Taft in various Republican conventions will be so worded as to release delegates from Taft if things look too strong in the direction of Roosevelt.

ROYAL PARTY VISITS CORFU

German and Italian Police Express Anxiety as to Their Safety on Account of Terrorists.

Berlin, March 24.—Kaiser Wilhelm
and his consort, their fourth son, Prince August, Princess Victoria, and many members of his majesty's official family, and a number of the royal couple's personal friends, left Berlin today for Venice, whence they will go to Corfu to spend several weeks.
Recent terrorist activity throughout Europe makes the royal trip a matter of much anxiety to the German and Italian police.

MANY INJURED IN HEAD ON COLLISION

Both Engines Roll Down Steep Embankment With Number of Coaches.

Burgin, Ky., March 24.—Twelve persons were injured, several fatally, when a passenger and freight train on the Cincinnati Southern met in a head on collision north of here this morning. Both engines were smashed and rolled down a 35-foot embankment with several coaches.

The following trainmen were dangerously hurt: John Ivels, fireman; J.
L. McDevigal, Danville, express messenger; S. E. Acton, Cincinnati, mail clerk; S. L. Thompson, Lexington, baggageman; C. G. Helm, Ludlow, engineer of freight; G. J. Lewis, Ludlow, engineer of passenger train; C.
R. Hostetter, flagman. Passengers injured: Lincoln Wells, sheriff of Casey county; Z. H. Young, West Covington; D. V. Bohn, Harrodsburg; D. M.
Mills, Nicholasville, S. D. Bartley, Louisville. All the passengers will recover.

SHERIFF KILLED BY HORSE THIEVES.

Denver, Colo., March 24.—A dispatch from Billings, Montana, says that Sheriff Webb of Yellowstone county, was killed this morning in a desperate battle with horse thieves.
Details are lacking.

SUICIDED IN SUBWAY

New York, March 24.—A panic was created in a downtown station of the subway today when Emil Berger, 45, leaped in front of a train and was instantly killed. Women started a stampede for the exits, and several fainted. Berger tried to kill himself several days ago.

WOMAN BURGLAR CAUGHT.

Stenbenville, O., March 24.—The police have arrested Birdie Semple,
a waitress at a local hotel, and charge that she entered a local dry goods store last night and threw goods to the value of $400 out of a window, and was ready to carry them away
when arrested inside the store.

ROOSEVELT WILL PREVENT CIRCULATION

Issues Orders to Suppress Publication of Anarchist Sheet

MURDER BY DYNAMITE

Advocated by New Jersey Paper
—Publishers to be Criminally Prosecuted.

Paterson, N. J., March 24.—President Roosevelt states in answer to an appeal from Mayor McBride to exclude
"La Question Sociale" from the mails for the purpose of suppressing the publication that, besides directing that the newspapers be denied the use of the mails, he has requested the Department of Justice to make every effort to prosecute criminally those responsible for the publication. A copy of the President's letter to the Department of Justice was inclosed by Secretary Loeb as the reply to the appeal of the Mayor, who made public the President's letter last night.

"La Question Sociale" recently published an appeal of an inflammatory character, which resulted in the action taken.

President Roosevelt's letter to the Department of Justice as sent to Mayor McBride follows:

"White House, Washington,
March 20, 1908.

"By direction the Postmaster General is to exclude 'La Question Sociale' of Paterson, N. J., from the mails, and it will not be admitted to the mails unless by order of the court, or unless you advise me further that it must be admitted. Please see if it is not possible to prosecute criminally, under a section of the law that is available, the men that are interested in the sending out of this Anarchistic and murderous publication. They are, of course, the enemies of mankind and every effort should be strained to hold them accountable for an offense far more infamous than that of our ordinary murderers.

"This matter has been brought to my attention by the Mayor of the city of Paterson. I wish every effort made to get at the criminals under the Federal law. It may be found impossible to do this. I shall also, through the secretary of state, call the attention of the governor of New Jersey to the circumstances, so that he may proceed under the state law, his attention being further drawn to the fact that the newspaper is circulated in other states. After you have concluded your investigation I wish a report from you to serve as a basis for recommendations by me for action by Congress.

"Under Section 3,893 of the Revised Statutes, lewd, obscene and lascivious books and letters, publications for indecency and immoral uses or of an indecency or immoral nature, and postal cards, upon which indecent and scurrilous epithets are written or printed;
are all excluded from the mail, and provision is made for the fine and imprisonment of those guilty.

"The newspaper article in question advocates murder by dynamite. It specifically advocates the murder of enlisted men of the United States army and the officers of the police force, and the burning of the houses of private citizens. The preaching of murder and arson is certainly as immoral as the circulation of obscene and lascivious literature, and if the practice is not already forbidden by the law it should be forbidden. The immigration law now prohibits the entry into the United States of any person who entertains or advocates the views expressed in this newspaper article.

"It is of course, inexcusable to permit those already here to promulgate such views. Those who write, publish and circulate those articles stand on a level with those who use the mails for distributing poisons for the purpose of murder, and convictions have been obtained when the mails have thus been used for the distribution of poison. No law should require the Postmaster-General to become an accessory to murder by circulating literature of this kind.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."
Postoffice inspectors have already commenced an investigation of the newspaper.

BEAT ALL PREVIOUS RECORDS FOR FLIGHTS

M. FAIRMAN FLYING NEAR ISSY-
LES-MOULINEAUX, FRANCE

Paris, March 24.—All previous records for aeroplane flights were officially beaten at Issy-les-Moulineaux by Mr. Henry Farman, and further, for the first time, an aeroplane with two persons on board made a short flight.

In the presence of officials of the French Aero club and an enormous crowd of spectators Mr. Farman made an attempt to break his own previous records. The aeroplane left the ground easily, and at a height of six meters made two complete circles, then a half circle, remaining in the air three minutes and 29 seconds.

The official record of the flight is that two and a half kilometers were covered, no account being taken of the extra distance run in negotiating turnings. If the distance run is calculated by the known speed of the aeroplane it will be found that the actual distance traversed was more than three kilometers, or three times the distance that a few months since sufficed to win the Deutsch-Archde-con prize.

Had not the motor heated, there is no reason why 20 kilometers should not have been flown. In fact, the

DEMOCRATIC MINORITY LEADER WOULD BRING REPUBLICANS TO TERMS

Washington, March 24.—Minority Leader Williams created a sensation in the house today when announcing that he would conduct a filibuster until the Republicans should give assurance that they would bring in for consideration of the house certain legislation consisting of measures which the President has already recommended for passage. Among these were the employers' liability bill, the bill taking duty off wood pulp and print paper, the measure providing for publicity for campaign contributions and the bill to limit the right to grant injunctions in labor disputes.

Columbus, March 24.—Ohio build-

$11,000,000 in assets last year, according to the annual report of Inspector Sperra, made to Governor Harris today.

ly. He has not lost strength during the past 24 hours."

San Francisco, March 25.—The condition of D. W. Stevens, American advisor of the Korean state council, who following an attack by four Koreans at the Fairmount Hotel, was shot at the Ferry station, is pronounced by physicians favorable to a speedy recovery today.

LABOR ATTACK MADE ON TAFT

At Union Labor Mass Meeting in Toledo He is Shown Up as Union's Foe.

Toledo, O., March 24.—At a union labor mass meeting attended by 2000 person here Representative Isaac R.
Sherwood, of this district, declared the presidential candidacy of Secretary William H. Taft to be inimical to the interests of the workingman.
He also attacked President Roosevelt for the presence of Federal troops at Goldfield last winter.

The purpose of the meeting was to protest against recent decisions of the Supreme court of the United States and against the action of the State Legislature in amending the initiative and referendum bill.

"To William Howard Taft are we indebted for government by injunction, and the recent rulings of the Supreme court on the questions of the boycott and the blacklist," said Gen.
Sherwood.

"Taft's decisions, while a judge in the case against the Bricklayers' Union in Cincinnati, and the strike of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers on the Ann Arbor railroad, nearly all the recent decisions of the Supreme court detrimental to organized labor.

"And Taft will continue to furnish future decisions if he is elected to the presidency. With the President lies the power of appointment to the Supreme bench for life. In order to have a Supreme court that is in sympathy with the people as a whole, you must elect presidents who are in entire sympathy with the people."

BLACK LICK MAN IN TROUBLE

HELD BY THE ST. LOUIS POLICE
PENDING AN INVESTIGATION OF STATEMENT.

Drove Into Columbus Saturday and Awoke in St. Louis in Trance.
Cashed Worthless Checks.

St. Louis, March 24.—A young farmer giving the name of Louis E.
Foor, who resides near Black Lick,
Ohio, appeared to the Belleville police last night for assistance and was held pending investigation of his own statement that he had cashed worthless checks in Columbus, Ohio, Saturday. Foor declares he came to St. Louis in a trance, awakening in a rooming house here without funds.
Foor told the Belleville police he drove into Columbus Saturday on a marketing trip. He said he has a hazy recollection of cashing checks to the amount of $175. When he awoke in St. Louis he had 15 cents and cannot account for the money he says he realized on the checks. Foor told the police his father, Joseph Foor, a farmer near Columbus, will take up the checks.

ANNA GOULD BEGS FAMILY FOR CONSENT

Would Arrange for Early Marriage With Prince

CONFERENCE IS HELD

Head of Family Will Not Discuss
Mme. Gould's Private Affairs.

New York, March 24.—There was a family conference of the Goulds
Monday, in which Mme. Anna
Gould is said to have pledged her consent to an early marriage with Prince Helle De Sagan, cousin of her former husband, Count Boniface De Castellane.

The conference was hastened by the publication of the news that the Prince De Sagan had arrived in New York from Paris by way of Halifax and registered at the Prince George hotel under an assumed name.

The prince did not attend the conference, as he departed hastily for Washington before most persons were out of bed. In the capital he registered, still under an assumed name, in the New Willard hotel.

The Gould conference was held in the Fifth avenue home of Mme.
Gould's sister, Miss Helen Miller
Gould. Mr. and Mrs. George Gould were known to be present. It was learned on good authority that Miss Gould had been practically won over to the idea of her sister marrying again.

If George Gould has arrived at any decision in the matter, he would not make it public. He returned to his apartment in the Hotel Plaza after a lengthy family talk. He would not discuss the unexpected presence of the prince or talk of Mme. Gould's af-airs. His consent to the marriage is particularly desirable, as he is the trustee of the bulk of Mme. Gould's fortunes.

Mrs. George Gould leaves today for a visit to Virginia Hot Springs. It is not unlikely that the next scene in this international romance will be staged there. There was a rumor last night that Mme. Gould would accompany her sister-in-law. The prince, in Washington, is but a step from Hot Springs and it is not unlikely that he will join the Goulds there.

BITE OF DOG CAUSES RABIES

FIVE PHYSICIANS OVERPOWER
AND PLACE HIM IN STRAIT

Three Women and Two Men are Bitten and All Will be Sent to New Orleans for Treatment.

Memphis, Tenn., March 24.—Andy Thompson, machinist, bitten on the hand by a dog, developed rabies despite the pasteur treatment. Five physicians overpowered him and put him in a strait jacket. He escaped this morning and bit three women and two men before he was overpowered again. All those bitten are to be taken to New Orleans for the Pasteur treatment. Thompson later choked himself to death in his agonies by trying a collar around his neck.

ink or otherwise.—DARIUS PIERCE, 10 Court street, Haverhill, Mass.

Thousands of unsolicited letters of gratitude like this of Mr. Pierce are received from grateful patients who are anxious to extol the merits of this great life saver and renewer of youth—Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

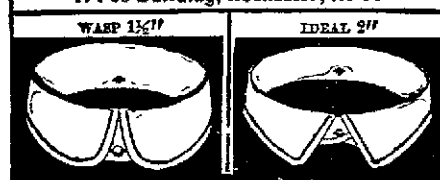

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions. It tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is recognized as a medicine everywhere.

CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Write Dr. Curran, consulting physician, for a free copy of illustrated medical booklet and free advice. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

is not yet free from the dangers of some complications, the probability of her burns ever resulting fatally is now thrown aside. The young woman rests easily most of the time, excepting when the wounds are dressed, every day, at which times her suffering is almost unendurable.

It is believed that within a few days the process of grafting new skin on some of the burned parts will be begun. This is an operation that requires the utmost skill and care, and while not necessarily extremely painful, will doubtless be rather trying on the patient's nerves. Just when this operation will be begun cannot be told as yet, but it will probably be within the next week, depending largely on the young woman's progress.

HOSPITAL DECLINES SUNDAY PROCEEDS

(Communicated.)

It was announced in your issue of Monday that the picture shows were open on Sunday and that the proceeds went to the City Hospital. The managers of the hospital desire to say that such announcement was made without consultation with them. And they desire further to say that they do not concur in the same, and do not believe that the interests of the hospital will be promoted by raising money by means of Sunday exhibitions, and that they are unwilling to receive such money.

THE MONEY WELL SPENT

Fund Remaining from Lindsey Lecture Used in the Purchase of Shoes for Needy Children.

Owing to the inability of Judge Ben B. Lindsey to reach Newark for a lecture on the evening of February 5, there was an amount of $22.75 left in the hands of Mrs. Mary A. Swan, to be used according to her best judgment. With her usual interest in the children, the well known probation officer of the Juvenile court purchased shoes with the money as far as it would go.

There were, in all, 16 pair of shoes bought from the George Maybold shoe store a few days ago and these are now being given out to needy children under the Juvenile court's protection. The shoes were of Mr. Maybold's best stock and he sold them to the probation officers at cost, expressing his willingness to render the court assistance at any time when needed.

PADEREWSKI

Among all the musical propositions of this or any past season in Zanesville, the engagement of Paderewski at the Weller theater, in Zanesville, on Tuesday, March 31, may be classed as of pre-eminent importance. It may safely be said that no instrumentalist has ever so profoundly moved and impressed the American people as a whole as has Paderewski. Sale begins Friday, March 27, at Weller theater, Zanesville. Tickets $1, $1.50, $2 and $2.50. Mail orders with remittance, addressed to Mr. W. Fred Mason, Manager Weller theater, will receive prompt attention.

AMUSEMENTS

THE LION AND THE MOUSE.

Theater goers of Newark are to have the pleasure again of witnessing the sterling play by Charles Klein, "The Lion and the Mouse." Henry B. Harris will present this wonderful success at the Auditorium tonight with a cast of unusual strength and the production is in full keeping with the original performance here some time ago. The cast includes a number of players especially selected by Mr. Harris for the presentation of this drama.

and that a sigh of regret follows at the fall of the curtain. At the Auditorium Friday afternoon and evening, March 27. Special matinee owing to the fact that there will be no matinee Saturday.

"NEWSIES" NIGHT.

Manager Lawrie, of the Orphium, is now known as the "Newsies" friend and he has strengthened the bid for that title by announcing that he will give away a ticket to every real sure thing newsie in town. Manager Lawrie has secured the lists

LENA RIVERS.

Of Miss Rose Lubonn and "Lena Rivers" the Toronto world says:

"Lena Rivers" was presented to a large audience, who showed appreciation of the sentiments of the play and the able interpretation of its characters by unstinted applause.

The play, "Lena Rivers," is by far above the average of the standard plays, and would be a credit to any theater, and the moral sentiment is such as to command all clear minded and honest hearted people. There is not one prurient or suggestive line in it, and the innocent fun and humor that bubbles up, even in some of its most serious situations, makes it so enjoyable from the beginning to the end. The local newspaper offices and provided tickets in proportion. Already a favorite with the boys and girls, the genial manager bids fair to have all of the newsboys on his side and make them earnest "rooters" for the family theater.

ORPHIUM THEATER.

Good weather, extensive advertising and a good show were instrumental in packing the Orphium to the doors last evening. Where the immense throng came from nobody knows, as all the other attractions and did big business, but the huge mass of humanity that packed the home of vaudeville was the banner crowd of the evening. And Manager Lawrie deserved the crowd as he has a first class bill from start to finish.

Rismor the Himalayan Yogi, is one of the main features of the bill. Rismor, who is a native of British India, passed through many years of schooling with the natives of the Himalayas and thus acquired great skill in the occult science of the Hindus. Dressed in the picturesque attire that is in vogue in that section of the dark region, Rismor does a wonderful feat. Presenting a handsome young lady he places her in a hypnotic state, and by the force of personal magnetism or astral force, as he terms it he causes her body to rise in the air and move about, merely by a quiver of the hands. The act is conducted on the front of the stage in full view of the audience, but there was not one, even of those who sat in the first seat who could see anything in the way of mechanism which could explain the strange conditions.

Abbott, Andrew and company present an act that would give zest to any show. It is a dramatic playlet entitled "The Little Leading Lady." This little playlet is as powerful as steel, yet so nicely it is upstaged with skilful character drawing, brilliant dialogue, striking atmosphere and telling situations, that it was enjoyed as a twenty minutes of delicious comedy by those who must not need think too deeply to grasp the strong points of the playlet.

FRANK L. PERRY.

Rube comedian who created a laugh a minute at the Orphium last evening.

A number that met with unlimited favor was that of Rely and Morgan. Mr. Rely can hold his own with any black face comedian now in vaudeville. Miss Morgan is a dainty person, dressed with a large degree of personal beauty and shapeliness. She is a singer of exceptional natural gifts and good training and proved a big hit.

Frank L. Perry has a catchy method and is a musician of the first order. In addition to this he is a very clever talker, his monologue is bright and crisp, still saying nothing that can offend in the slightest degree. His dancing finish won him a double encore. The pictured melody and motion pictures complete a fine bill.

Color of Adjoining Rooms

A certain unity of composition should be preserved in the treatment of rooms. The conditions of light vary on each floor of the house. We find each floor requires entirely different treatment as we ascend the stairs. No one room should be treated without the best consideration to one adjoining. The question of the north and south should always be taken into consideration—but the north room of the lower floor is not so light as the one on the upper floor. One should adopt a unity in color when treating rooms on the same floor. On the lower floor colors should be arranged that would moderate the sunny exposure and brighten the cheer of a north light. The three color combination is always good. The hallway green, front parlor yellow, the back parlor red, would give satisfaction always for the side walls would be harmonious. Ascending the color should be in softer tones.

Catches Big Fish. Attorney A. A. Stasel received a letter from Mr. Jas. K. Hamill, at Naples, Fla., Tuesday, describing the sport he had in landing a 100 pound tarpon. The fish was five feet eight inches long and it required 3-4 of an hour's hard work to land him. As evidence of the catch Mr. Hamill sent one of the scales from the fish, the scale being 2x2 1-2 inches in size. No affidavit accompanied the letter, but when it is remembered that the statement comes from Mr. Hamill, none is needed.

Small Freight Wreck. A small freight wreck occurred on the B & O. railroad Sunday morning just south of the city. The wreck occurred at the Pumphrey crossing and was caused by a freight car breaking down as the train was passing over the crossing. The car was thrown from the tracks. The car was loaded with household goods which were scattered about the tracks. The wreck crew from Newark was called. Passenger train No. 7 was held about four hours and No. 4 was held up in this city for about two hours.—Mt. Vernon Banner.

How to Fit Candles. The uninitiated still continue to laboriously shave down the end of a wax candle which is too large for its candlestick, but it should never be pared to make it of the right thickness. A better method is that of holding it in hot water for a few moments, when the end becomes softened and will fit firmly into the candlestick as soon as the wax hardens again.

TEACHERS' SALARIES REDUCED BECAUSE OF PROHIBITION

Mobile, Ala., March 24.—The Mobile City and County School Board adopted sweeping reductions in the salaries of the teachers of the schools, effective with the next term. The kindergarten, music and manual training departments are eliminated from the school work. The assistant superintendent is abolished. A tuition fee of $16 annually is made to the High school, the first tuition charged in the local city and county schools. A committee of business men and citizens attended the meeting and urged the board to contest the validity of the prohibition law. The board held that it had no option in the matter, and the citizens will appeal to the courts. The loss of revenue from taxes on the liquor traffic compels the reduction in teachers' salaries.

KIDNEYS CURED BY THIS SIMPLE TREATMENT.

Get your druggist to mix the following ingredients: One-half ounce fluid extract Buchu, one ounce of compound fluid Balmor and two ounces of Syrup Sarsaparilla compound. Shake well and take a teaspoonful before each meal and one when retiring. Drink plenty of water between meals and at night, but little of any liquid at meal times. This buchu alone is an excellent tonic for the kidneys and bladder, but combined with the excellent qualities of balmor and sarsaparilla its efficacy is ten times greater. The great urinary specialist, Dr. Gault whose fee ranges from $500 to $1000, acknowledges in his latest "reports" that this German health "Bureau" that this simple mixture is most reliable and will cure all but the most complicated and aggravated kidney and bladder affections, therefore it is well worth trying. It is not an expensive formula. Puffing under the eyes backache, headache and dizziness, burning of the eyes, blurred vision, extreme nervousness and insomnia, all indicate urinary trouble. Many more symptoms could be named but the reader will surely avoid neglect and prevent serious complications like diabetes, Bright's disease, apoplexy and rheumatism.

MR. ASHBROOK'S SPEECH.

"Pension laws should be drafted out of a goodly mixture of gratitude, generosity and justice." This is the headline given in the Congressional Record of March 21 over the speech delivered in the House of Representatives by Hon. Wm. A. Ashbrook, who represents this district in the lower branch of Congress.

The Advocate takes pleasure in presenting to its readers the full text of Mr. Ashbrook's admirable speech and commends the address to the attention of the soldiers and other citizens of this community.

This speech reminds one of the bitter campaign that was waged against Mr. Ashbrook, a feature of which was the false assertion that he was unfriendly to the veterans. It will be remembered that the opposition clipped from Mr. Ashbrook's newspaper a statement to corroborate the claim, ignoring the fact that said clipping was taken from a "patent inside" over which Mr. Ashbrook had no control. That the article in question did not reflect Mr. Ashbrook's sentiments is substantiated in the speech published in today's Advocate.

Since going to Washington, Mr. Ashbrook has been particularly active in behalf of the veterans and their widows and he has already established a reputation distancing that of his predecessor, who posed as the only real friend the old soldier ever had. Besides doing effective work along this line, Mr. Ashbrook has secured a recommendation for an increase in the Newark postoffice building appropriation and, in fact, has at all times been working industriously and successfully for the interests of his constituents.

COX AND THE TAFTS.

George B. Cox, the Cincinnati boss, and Charles P. Taft, the Cincinnati editor, both landed in Washington last Saturday and began joint conferences with Republican leaders to promote the candidacy of Secretary Taft for the Presidency. How it comes that Cox and the two Tafts have become such close friends since it is so well known to Ohioans that the Akron speech of Secretary Taft, in 1905, roasting Cox was the sensation of that campaign, is one of the peculiar incidents of modern political strange bed-fellowship. The only logical conclusion is that the Tafts have concluded to lay down absolutely and submit to Cox bossism with complaisance and resignation.

HON. WM. A. ASHBROOK SPEAKS
ON SUBJECT OF PENSIONS
IN HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Hon. William A. Ashbrook of the Seventeenth Ohio district, delivered the following address on the subject of pensions in the House of Representatives:

The House being in Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union and having under consideration the bill (H. R. 16288) making appropriations for the payment of invalid and other pensions of the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, and for other purposes.

Mr. Ashbrook said:
Mr. Chairman: The House being in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the purpose of considering the annual appropriation for pensions I desire to re-monstrate and enter my protest on St. Patrick's day in the morning against existing laws governing the granting of pensions and the arbitrary and unjust rules and practices adopted by the Committee on Pensions.

It appears to me that the laws have been made to prevent, rather than give, pensions to that class of men who, by their heroism and bravery, made it possible for this nation to become the greatest of all nations.

No discretionary powers rest in the officials of the Pension Bureau. Technicalities are always in favor of the Government and against the poor soldiers, half of whom die trying to get that to which they are justly entitled.

All admit that every general law oftentimes works injustice. Pension laws should, however, be drafted out of a goodly mixture of gratitude, generosity, and justice.

Authority should be given the Commissioner of Pensions or a board of commissioners to pass upon all claims, according to the individual merit of each claim.

This authority rests in the hands of the Pension Committee. Likewise in the Invalid Pension Committee. But these committees have time to pass upon a few only of the many worthy and deserving bills introduced by the Members of Congress and referred to these committees.

If it is right, if it is just and fair for these committees to pass upon a few bills, why should not all of these bills be passed upon and accepted or rejected, according to the evidence and merit of the claimant?

During this session of the Sixtieth Congress in the neighborhood of 12,000 bills will be introduced in the House alone.

How many will be acted upon? Not so many likely as 2,000. What about those left in the pigeonhole?

Comrade Smith is helpless, blind, or partially so; perhaps paralyzed; possibly he has no property, no income except his pittance doled out by the Government.

A bill is introduced by his Congressman for his special relief. His bill happens to be one of the fortunate ones considered. By special act his pension is increased from $12 to $24, or even $30 per month; quite likely it should have been more. But it is an increase anyway, and his remaining days, but few at most, are made happier.

But how about Comrade Jones, who lives in the same town with Comrade Smith? He, too, is blind, helpless, no money, equally dependent and destitute.

His bill is not reached. He must continue to live on $12 per month or be carried to the county house. The congressman is told that his case was not reached and he must wait until the next session.

Perhaps before Congress convenes again the old soldier, who, when his country called him, left his home, his wife, his little ones, his aged mother, gave up pursuits full of promise to defend the flag and preserve the Union, dies.

He will not longer beg the Government to come to his relief, so sorely needed. He came to the relief of his country when the blood of the flower of our young manhood was so badly needed and so fearfully sacrificed, and dies unrewarded.

No: the old comrade's eyes are closed. After life's fitful fever he sleeps well.

He no longer clamors for or needs our aid or relief. A twenty-dollar headstone is generously set at the head of his grave. Possibly a flower is deposited on the little mound.

We close our eyes with satisfaction and boast of the splendid and generous care this great Government gives to its defenders.

Perhaps a century hence a costly monument may supplant the modest marker, a hothouse shelter the grave; but what does this avail the hero? A few dollars more each month while he was living would have meant far more than this tardy and unlimited expenditure after the final muster-out. (Applause.)

No, Mr. Chairman, what we intend to do for the old soldiers ought to be done NOW.

We should not wait until all, or practically all, have answered the final summons. And they are fast dropping from the ranks, too, my colleagues. The gentleman from Ohio (General Sherwood), that valiant old soldier and statesman, told us the other day that 25,000 soldiers died last year; 80 every day; 1 every eighteen minutes. The old veterans will not be with us long.

And so I say that if one comrade is entitled to $24 or $30 per month by general or special act then every other comrade in like circumstance and condition is entitled to $21 or $30 per month.

But how can this be done when one man must investigate and prepare the bills in all of the bills referred to the Invalid Pension Committee? And one man to perform like service for the Pension Committee? It is simply out of the question.

I have no criticisms to make of Mr. Gauss, detailed by the Pension Bureau to examine the bills of the Invalid Pension Committee, or of Mr. Terry of the Pension Committee. In fact, I wonder how they go over the great mass of evidence and prepare as many bills for the committees as they do. I believe they are the hardest-worked Government employees in Washington today. At least three additional examiners should be detailed on the Invalid Pension Committee, that not only a few, but every bill, might be investigated and passed upon, to the end that every soldier would be treated exactly alike.

This is one of the conditions Mr. Chairman, that I believe every Member will agree with me ought to be remedied. Fish should not be made of one and fowl of another.

As a new Member I do not know how I can satisfactorily square myself with my soldier constituency. I have introduced forty-odd bills for special relief. I can not hope to get one-third of them passed. How about the others? Many will not be acted upon, equally as meritorious as those considered by the committee.

This is injustice to the Congressmen and injustice to the soldier. This, too, in a land where the Goddess of Justice stands blindfolded, that no distinction of the rights of any man, be he rich or be he poor, is supposed to be made. No wonder she stands blindfolded, for if sight were not obscured, she would weep big tears of shame that justice is so perverted.

The House has passed the widows' pension bill increasing from $8 per month to $12 per month the pensions of all widows who married soldiers prior to 1890.

Think of it. Eight dollars per month.

I received a letter yesterday, dated March 13, from a soldier's widow, Julia Dunaway, of Granville, Ohio, inquiring if it were true that Congress had passed a law increasing widows' pensions to $12 per month.

She says:
I am the mother of ten children. When my husband was living he got a pension of $100 per month and we got along very well. Now I get only $8 per month and it is mighty hard to keep so many. I need all that I can get. Please tell me, is it true about our pensions?

Think of that, Mr. Chairman. A soldier's widow, the mother of ten children, drawing the munificent sum of $8 per month. This is an outrage. Any woman the mother of ten children whether she is a soldier's widow or not ought to get more than that. (Applause.)

The Senate wisely amended and passed this bill removing the marriage limitations. This is right; this is just. The wife who cares for her soldier husband during his last days, sure to be filled with suffering, nine chances out of ten a helpless invalid requiring untold care and attention, is entitled to a pension.

But the Senate did not go far enough. It makes this pension provision for widows of the wars up to and including the civil war only. Why exempt the Spanish war widows? This bill is now in the hands of a conference committee.

I hope this committee will still further amend the bill to include the widows and minor children of all wars.

I want to vote for this bill with such an amendment.

I want this House to pass the bill so amended. I believe the Senate will concur and I am sure the President will sign it.

I want a roll call had that every Member may go on record, that the friends of the heroes of this nation may be known and properly classified.

This, Mr. Chairman, brings me to a decidedly objectionable practice and rule.

I refer to the rules of the Pension Committee, to whom is referred all bills for special relief except those of the civil war.

This committee refuses to consider a Spanish war bill when the disabilities did not originate while in the service or can not be traced to such service.

This is an arbitrary and unjust rule. This rule does not prevail in the Invalid Pension Committee. I am glad to say.

The Pension Committee refuses to consider this class of claims and gives as a reason therefor that not until the act of 1890 were any pensions given to civil war veterans or veterans of other wars for disability without service origin.

This is strange precedent. If it was right to pension a soldier in 1890 and since that time for disabilities other than of service origin, it was right to give such pensions before 1890.

It is right to give civil war veterans such pensions, why not be fair to the Spanish war veterans?

I am told it is too soon; that the Spanish war veterans must wait because the veterans of other wars waited.

Because the veterans of wars previous to the Spanish war were not fairly and justly treated is that any reason why the rule should be continued and adhered to? Not in the least. I ask indulgence for another personal reference to a case in my own district, the Seventeenth Ohio.

I refer to the claim of Herbert O. Kohr of Ulrichsville, Ohio. He enlisted in Co. B, First Battalion of Engineers, U. S. A.; served three years, re-enlisted, and at the end of the second enlistment received an honorable discharge after six years of faithful service to his country. There is not a blot on his record.

Shortly after his discharge, while engaged on a public work at Oldwine, Iowa, a supposed dead dynamite fuse exploded. When his bleeding body was picked up, it was found that he had lost both eyes—not the sight only, but the eye balls were gone—one hand was off, and his face and body otherwise horribly disfigured; a wreck for life.

Before the accident he was a perfect picture of physical manhood. Now he is blind, helpless, penniless. A little lad leads this once stalwart soldier from house to house, from town to town.

He makes a precarious livelihood by selling a book that he has written, since that accident. It is entitled "Around the World, or Six Years with Uncle Sam."

Yes; he was six years with Uncle Sam. Must he wait thirty years, if perchance he lives so long, to get a little something for six of the best years of his life?

He was in the battle of Santiago, he was in China during the Boxer uprising, and in the Philippines for many months. He risked his life and health, and for six long years was in arms, the greater portion of this time on the field of battle.

Now he is denied even a pittance from the Government he so faithfully and honestly defended. Why?

Because his disability did not originate in the service.

This is true. But for comparison let me refer to another case.

I know a veteran of another war who was in the service just 91 days. He was stricken with paralysis, and is now a Government beneficiary to the extent of $30 per month.

I am not opposed to pensions of the class to which I have referred. Not by any means. I doubt if any soldier ever got more than he deserved, and but few get as much.

I believe in pensions from the bottom of my heart.

I believe in pensions, first, because those who risked their lives in the defense of their country are entitled, in the days of their adversity, to the care and protection of the country they served so well. It is simple justice, not charity.

Second, because of the billion of dollars, or thereabouts, annually appropriated by the United States no part of it or all the rest of it does the country as much good as the one hundred and fifty millions distributed among the soldiers.

The merchant, the doctor, the editor, the preacher, and even the undertaker gets his share.

But to the claim of my poor blind Spanish war veteran. He is denied. He served six years, but because he happens to be a veteran of this war and not of some other war he must continue to live upon the charity of the public.

Six years ago Hon. John W. Cassingham, who then represented the district I today have the honor of representing, introduced a bill for the relief of Herbert O. Kohr. Two years ago my honorable predecessor, Judge M. L. Smyser, introduced a similar bill. The committee refused to consider these bills.

One of the first bills I introduced was for the relief of this poor, helpless unfortunate man.

The chairman of the Pension Committee, the honorable gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. Lounsberry), he with the ever-present pink carnation in his coat lapel, fluffy cravat, and provoking twinkle in his eye, blandly but bluntly informed me that he would not permit the committee to recommend or consider this bill while he was chairman of the committee.

I interviewed many members of the Pension Committee. All agreed that this was a most worthy claim, but told me that I must get the consent of the chairman to consider the bill before a stone could be turned.

The poor soldier, who had worked his way to the Capitol, vainly appealed to be allowed to go before the committee, but he with pink complexion and enlarged heart still denied him.

I turned to the President of the United States. The blind soldier stood before the Chief Executive in mute silence. No lengthy appeal was necessary to enlist his sympathy and interest. A few simple words told the story of his life and service. The President realized the justness of the claim. President Roosevelt said Herbert O. Kohr ought to be pensioned, and that he would write the chairman of the Pension Committee and urge (Continued on Page 7, Col. 3.)

NEWARK GROUND MAY INTEREST GOVERNMENT

Proposition to Offer Local Camp Ground to U. S. Army for a Testing Station.

Washington, March 24.—The action of the Ohio legislature in restoring the permanent state encampment ground near Newark O., to the Newark Board of Trade was brought to the attention of Congressman William A. Ashbrook today with the suggestion that perhaps the federal government might become interested in accepting the site for an experimental station or testing plant.

Mr. Ashbrook expressed a desire to be of all possible assistance and said he thought the suggestion a good one. He believes that there is a good chance of interesting the federal authorities. The location of the site is good, the area 141 acres ample and the fact that the ground is marked by some of the best examples of the Mound-builders work should appeal to Congress.

The acceptance of this land by the government would not only mean the expenditure of a large sum of money in improving and preserving it, but the location of a government experimental station for the testing of soils or minerals or agricultural products would be a splendid thing for Newark. Mr. Ashbrook suggests that the city file its proposal and he will act immediately.

Are You Sure Your Kidneys are Well?

Many rheumatic attacks are due to uric acid in the blood. But the duty of the kidneys is to remove all uric acid from the blood. Its presence there shows the kidneys are inactive. Don't daily with "uric acid solvents." You might go on till doomsday with them, but until you cure the kidneys you will never get well. Doan's Kidney Pills not only remove uric acid, but cure the kidneys and then all danger from uric acid is ended. Here is Newark testimony to prove it.

Mrs. M. E. Manville, 39 Lansing Block, Newark, Ohio, says: "I received more relief from Doan's Kidney Pills than from any remedy I ever used. I was bothered a great deal from rheumatism in my limbs and back and was never free from pain. Although I used various remedies, I was constantly growing worse. I at last heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured a box at Crayton's drug store and took them according to directions and they completely disposed of the rheumatism and rid me of all the other symptoms of disordered kidneys. Although this was over ten years ago, I can just as heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today as the results I obtained have proven permanent."

OBITUARY

JOSEPH STETHONA.

The body of Joseph Stethona, the Roumanian who died Saturday after suffering intense agonies for two weeks following his attempt at suicide by taking carbolic acid, has been turned over to the township authorities for burial. The body has received practically no attention from fellow countrymen or friends.

Stethona is said to have been in America but about ten months, and, unable to secure employment, became 'despondent and took acid.' The body will probably be buried Tuesday afternoon or Wednesday morning.

FUNERAL OF CHAS. H. KREPPES.

The funeral of Charles H. Kreppes, the victim of the terrible accident at the American Bottle company's plant in this city on Sunday, which resulted in his death early Monday morning will be held at the First Presbyterian church in this city, Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Vernon officiating, and the interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

JOSEPH CONGARER.

The body of Joseph Congarer, a foreigner, who died at St. Anthony's hospital in Columbus Monday evening, was brought to this city Tuesday and taken to the Criss Bros. & Jones undertaking parlors, where the body will be kept until the funeral takes place Wednesday.

BENJAMIN F. WOODWARD.

Word has just been received by relatives of this city, notifying them of the death of Benjamin F. Woodward, of Denver, Col., a former Newark man, who has been identified with the growth of Denver and Colorado for 45 years. Mr. Woodward was born in this city, in June, 1834. At the age of 18 he was manager of the Pittsburgh telegraph office of the Western Atlantic and Ohio Telegraph company. He built the first telegraph line in Colorado, and for many years was manager for the Western Union Telegraph company in Denver, and superintendent of telegraph for the Denver and Rio Grande railway.

SETTLED

Were Most of Cases Before Mayor Atherton—Howard Ogle Was Brought Over.

The Monday afternoon session of police court was spent chiefly in settling up the various difficulties that various people had gotten into. Tom Madison, colored, was charged with slapping a woman with a knife. He had not been cut, and he withdrew the charge. After he had reached that decision Miller was released, for that was the only charge against him.

The American Talking Machine company, represented by their manager in this city, Mr. Beard, and Perry Robinson, charged by them with obtaining a $26 outfit under false pretenses, had their case tried before Mayor Atherton but they managed to patch up their difficulties and upon Robinson agreeing to return the graphophone and records the case against him was dropped.

Howard Ogle, charged by W. Piper with frisking his clothes while he slept, and removing from said garments a bunch of coin of the realm, was brought over to the Court of Common Pleas in the sum of $200. Ogle couldn't get the necessary so he rode down to the county jail to become the guest of Sheriff Redmon. After Ogle took Paper's money he went to the Jones blacksmith shop and buried the money in a brick pile. After he had been arrested he took an officer to the place and turned the money over to him.

Simeon Cohen and his brother, charged by Fred Lisey with "boot-legging" apples from a car, agreed to get out of town with the remainder of the fruit, and Mr. Lisey withdrew the charge.

James Murry, charged with interfering with Officer Chester while the policeman was making an arrest, was given $5 and costs which he paid and was released.

There was no police court this morning, not an arrest having been made Monday.

HUMAN STOMACH HAS BECOME DEGENERATE

Animals Are Healthier Because of Strong Digestive Apparatus.

An interesting interview was recently obtained with L. T. Cooper, the young man whose theory and medicines have created such a sensation during the past year.

Mr. Cooper, in speaking of the remarkable success of his medicine, had this to say on the subject: "My medicine regulates the stomach. That is why it is successful. The human stomach today has become degenerate, and is the cause for most ill health. In the horse, the dog, and the wild animals generally, you see no nerve exhaustion, no chronic debility. They are not shut up day after day with practically no exercise, and they are not able to stuff themselves with food when their bodies have not had enough work to justify it. The human race has been doing this for years, and look at the result—half the people are complaining of poor health, not real illness—just a half-sick, tired, drooping feeling. They don't really know what is the matter with them.

"I know that all the trouble is caused by weak, overworked stomachs. I have proved this with my medicine to many thousands of people in most of the leading cities of this country. I expect to do the same thing in Europe next year. This is the real reason for the demand for my preparation."

Among those who have recently been converted to Cooper's theory is Mr. Monroe Brown of 8 Hancock Street, Winchester, Mass. Mr. Brown has this to say of his experience with the new medicine: "For over seven years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach, and for the past year I was lame with rheumatism. I attributed this to my stomach trouble, as my circulation was very poor. What food I ate would turn to gas almost at once. I would have a sensation of bloating, and would have to belch frequently to relieve this. My heart also became affected, and I would suddenly become dizzy and have palpitations. I was tired and dull and despondent at all times. I lost a great deal of flesh, and was nervous and depressed. This went on for over seven years, although I spent hundreds of dollars trying to get relief.

"When Cooper was in Boston I heard a good deal about his ideas on stomach trouble. Next, one or two friends told me that his medicines had greatly helped them. I purchased some of the New Discovery medicine. Today I am perfectly well. I sleep like a baby, can eat anything and have no rheumatism or heart trouble. I no longer have any gas on my stomach, and feel as I did years ago. No one could be more astonished by these facts than myself. They are remarkable, but true. This is indeed a wonderful medicine."

The Cooper preparations have been more widely sold and discussed since being introduced than anything of the kind ever before sold by druggists. We sell them and explain their nature, —City Drug Store.

COMMITTEE

On Advertising From Baseball Club Hunting for Business Today. Merchants Responding.

The advertising committee of the baseball club started out today with the best spells working, and calls will be made on all the merchants in the endeavor to sell space on the fences, grandstand and all available spaces at Wehrle park.

Advertising always was and always will be a good thing, and when the merchants take into consideration that between 50,000 and 60,000 people read the ads at the park last summer it is easy to see that advertising pays. Most of the people who had their advertisements painted on the fences last year have taken space again, so they seem to think it pays.

While many of the ads are on the inside of the fences yet some of them can be read from the passing street cars and do double duty. Baseball did much towards advertising Newark last year and the business men realizing this fact, should be willing to aid the ball directors in raising a little money by a liberal response in advertising.

As soon as the contracts are made the painters will go to work and by the opening game the fences will be gay with many colors boosting the business of the progressive merchants. The committee will be unable to see all the advertisers today, and tomorrow will also be spent in calling on the "hustlers for business."

COURTET ABSENT.
Armond Courtet, the Indianapolis twirler signed this year by Manager Berryhill, will not report at the beginning of the season. At least not by April first. He wrote Secretary Hopkins that there was illness in his family and he could not arrive in Newark by a week from Wednesday.

BATS ARRIVE.
Manager Boh evidently expects his men this year to be sluggers of the first water, for when the express wagon stopped at the office of Business Manager Maurath Monday, the expressman delivered three dozen new bats. Some of the men may bring their own bats with them, for players as a rule are cranky about the wood they use for plate work. But if they don't furnish their own run getters the club will have every weight bat ready for them.

It is when we have wrongs that we most distinctly feel that we have rights.

Several large fortunes have been made by picking up money that has been thrown away.

Some people who are selfish in other respects never think of keeping their opinions to themselves.

No man feels more keenly the exactions of the railroad than the man who has forgotten his pass.

If people would only work as hard as they worry they wouldn't have any time to worry.

The watchmaker should have a good memory for faces.

ALL READY

FOR THE EMPIRE'S "PLAY BALL" ARE THE OHIO STATE TEAMS.

LEAGUE HAS PRESTIGE

Clubs Start Season With Brilliant Prospects for a Successful Year. Race Will Be Close.

With the spring sunshine streaming down all over the circuit of the Ohio State league, the buds bursting and the grass turning the meadows and lawns into a deep emerald, the heart of the baseball fan is swelling more than ever with the anticipation of the coming season. He is "dippy" to the extreme, and absorbs eagerly and news from the field and assimilates it into baseball jargon cut on the same pattern.

No class C baseball organization in the United States has greater prestige than the Ohio State will have. When most of the cities now in the Ohio State were in the O. P. there were flourishing baseball towns and many players were sent into foster company from here.

This year, more than ever does the association of clubs start out with brilliant prospects. The race will be close and the people are interested, and the managers are straining every nerve to get together the best kind of ball players. The result will be an increased prosperity for the men concerned.

The closeness of the race in the league last year was remarkable and for the last few weeks there was one of the prettiest pennant races ever seen in baseball. Up until the very last game the team were battling hard for the lead in the percentage column. Newark fought Youngstown until the very last game of the season and then lost the flag by a fraction of a game.

This year all the teams in the Ohio State league have been strengthened and the race bids fair to be a great one from the first game until the last. Everything will be in readiness for the opening of the season, the schedule as prepared is a good one, the "play ball" of the umpire is about all that is necessary now.

IRISH BEAUTY AN AMERICAN.

Mollie Brady, of an Irish Fair, Lives in Jersey and Never Saw Erin.

It came out the other day that Miss Mary Brady, aged seventeen, of 33 East Forty-first street, Bayonne, N. J., a grandniece of ex-Mayor Thomas Brady of that city, was "Mollie Brady, the Irish queen," at the recent Irish fair at Madison Square Garden, New York. Miss Brady said, with a smile, that while she was visiting the fair Mrs. Elizabeth O'Reilly Neville asked her to take care of her booth for a few minutes. While she was in charge some reporters came along and decided she was the prettiest girl Ireland had sent over to the fair. Pat Powers, Miss Brady said, decided not to correct this impression, and a full page, with pictures of Miss Brady, in a New York Sunday newspaper followed.

Miss Brady attends the Bayonne high school. Mrs. Neville said she would take whatever blame there might be for the deception. She was pleased that an American girl should have been selected as the most beautiful at the fair.

So far as is known in Bayonne, she never visited Ireland.

ALMOST HUMAN MACHINE.

Remarkable Claims Made For a Stamp Vending Contrivance.

F. H. Brinkerhoff, an inventor of Sedalia, Mo., went to Washington recently to try to persuade the postoffice department to consider favorably his stamp vending machine. He says that his machine has decided human tendencies and indications because it makes a profit of a cent on every transaction.

The machine, with twenty-five others, has been inspected by a special committee appointed by the postmaster general. It does fifty different things, such as selling postage stamps in any sum desired, making the proper change, weighing and counting money, discarding spurious, defective or foreign coins and about everything that could possibly arise in a transaction of this nature. If you want money changed and do not desire to purchase stamps, this machine will gladly accommodate you, but it charges a cent for the favor. This fee it consistently deducts from the amount placed in the slot.

WHEN LINCOLN DANCED.

Veteran Official's Reminiscences of the President's Attempt to Ohio.

"I shall never forget the only time Abraham Lincoln danced in Ohio," said Colonel Isaac H. Marrow of Toledo, Chinese inspector in Ohio, the other day. Then he launched into reminiscences of President Lincoln.

"I was commander of Governor Denison's guards," Marrow is, eighty-three now and has served the government since the early forties. "We arranged a ball for Lincoln, then just elected, and going to Washington. When he came in, he said to me: 'I've never danced. I don't know how. But I will lead the march if your wife will lead with me.' She did. She came below his shoulder. They circled fifteen times, and it was a sight that set the crowd laughing."

Marrow was Lincoln's aid in the White House for seven months.

Joke on a Presidential Possibility.
Congressman J. Sloan Fassett of New York, who attended the Lincoln day banquet in Pittsburgh, sprang a joke on the newspaper men the other afternoon. In spite of the fact that it had whiskers, it made a hit. Fassett in discussing presidential possibilities declared that the people of New York want Charles Evans Hughes for president.

"But what if Hughes cannot get the nomination?" he was asked.

"Well, that's another question," he answered. "It reminds me of Lord Dundreary's story. He asked a woman if her brother Charlie liked cheese, and she replied that she had no brother Charlie."

"Well," said Lord Dundreary, "if you had a brother Charlie do you think he would like cheese?" So that is the best answer I can give to your question about Hughes."

Jewels Outside Your Furs.

A new fashion set by Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish interested the tea drinkers in the Plaza hotel, in New York, the other afternoon. Mrs. Fish arrived at the Fifty-eighth street entrance of the Plaza when the rooms were thronged. She wore a long cloak of broadtail fastened by a diamond ornament of great size. Except for these gems there was no dash of color to relieve the costume. In a flash this innovation had sunk deep into the hearts of other women, and the way in which jewels were quickly shifted after Mrs. Fish had been seen seemed to indicate that in future gems will not hide their light under fur cloaks.

The Bowwow and the Burglar.

[Five Belgian police dogs are doing patrol duty in New York City.]

With each foot in a rubber-soled boot. Once a burglar went out after loot. Drills and jimmies he lugged. And a toment he heaved. 'Neath the coat of his hand-me-down suit.

A police dog imported from Ghent. In pursuit of the bold burglar went. And he gave a loud yelp. Meaning, "Here he is—help!"

Just as soon as his nose struck the scent. Did the burglar get as limp as a rag. And resort to revolver and gag? No. He merely hissed "Scat!" To his big Thomas cat. And then coolly walked off with the swag.

When the roundsman rushed up in fierce. Not a trace of the thief could be seen. But the four-legged "cop." Near the burglarized shop. Had the big Thomas cat up a tree!

Conquer That Cough

Don't go around with a cough on your chest. Every day that you let it remain, the tighter its grip becomes. The cough becomes more violent and exhausting; the delicate bronchial passages get inflamed under the continual hacking; the lungs become lacerated under the constantly recurring paroxysms.

With Piso's Cure

there is a soothing and healing effect upon the entire respiratory mucous membrane. It has stood the test for nearly half a century as the one reliable remedy for consumption, colds and all chest affections. It goes right to the origin of the trouble, removes the cause and aids nature in restoring healthful conditions. Piso's Cure is absolutely free from objectionable ingredients. Its perfect safety, pleasant taste and unequalled efficiency make it the ideal remedy for man, woman and child. If you have a cough drive it out today.

An Engineer's Trouble.

We reproduce the following from the Cambridge Jeffersonian, by request:

(By Ithome Talent.)
Eng. 949 being George Hall's pet, he hated to lose her—this you can bet; But Sept. 17th the change did make, And Engine 586 poor George did take.

When she arrived at Cambridge—poor George was sore, His voice, they say, was like a lion's roar. He did not know what else to do, So he went to Newark to tell them a thing or two.

When he arrived at Newark his feathers fell down, So he caught the next train right back to town. He reported for duty and went to work, Thankful himself nobody he'd hurt.

He continued his work from day to day, No more about his Engine could you hear him say. He took his medicine like a man, Saying on the quiet to Harvey, "I'll get rid of her if I can."

But at last with rapture his heart did fill, While switching one morning at the new bar mill, So being quite strong and pulled to do, He gave her a yank and nothing he'd do.

He notified Newark his Engine broke down, Of course the road man—Fowler—he took her to town; And when arriving at Newark promptly on time, George got instructions to use his 949.

Of course he was happy as you can bet, To get once more his own little pet. But Saturday, after bringing 586 to town, He got instructions the 586 would be down.

His countenance did change, his temper did bristle, He immediately changed his big passenger whistle, Getting ready, no doubt, for his new Atlantic type. That he wished a thousand times was out of his sight.

SUICIDED

MRS. A. B. KREBS, DESPONDENT FROM ILL HEALTH TAKES HER LIFE.

Hanged Herself in Father's House at Quaker City—Was a Resident of This City.

Mrs. A. B. Krebs, a former resident of this city, committed suicide at the home of her father, Elijah S. Stephan, near Quaker City, the latter part of last week, the funeral occurring Sunday.

Mrs. Krebs had been complaining of feeling badly and arose in the morning and passing through her father's room, went to the attic and making a noose with a clothes line, placed it around her neck after having first tied it to one of the rafters. She then mounted a box and kicking it out from under her, slowly strangled to death.

Mrs. Krebs underwent a critical surgical operation about a year ago, and since that time is said to have suffered from much mental trouble in the form of melancholia.

In October last, she went to Quaker City to visit among her relatives, and agreed with her husband to sell their pretty home in East Newark, situated at the corner of Florence street and Penney avenue. This was done, and, in the meantime, Mr. Krebs, who is an employee of the B. & O. shops, boarded with an East Newark family. A few weeks ago, as Mrs. Krebs appeared to be much improved in her general condition, they decided to rent a small house in this city and resume housekeeping. It is understood to have been the intention of Mr. and Mrs. Krebs to start housekeeping in this city again this week.

On last Wednesday Mr. Krebs visited his wife at the home of her relatives and at that time she was said to be greatly improved in physical and mental condition.

Saturday morning a telephone message was received in this city from a sister, Mrs. E. A. Lowe, of Zanesville, stating that her sister was dead.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Krebs are well known here and highly respected, the deceased having been a member of White Carnation Hive of the Lady Maccabees, the Tribe of Ben Hur, and the A. I. U.

The following relatives survive: A. B. Krebs, the husband; five sisters, the wife of Rev. C. E. Mumme of Welchfield, O.; Mrs. H. H. Egger of Woodfield, O.; Mrs. E. L. Lowe of Zanesville; Mrs. J. H. McBride of Woodfield, O.; Miss Delia A. Stephan of Wheeling, and the brother, Timothy Stephan, residing near Woodfield.

Sore Throat or Mouth
When the mouth or throat is irritated or diseased you have the common ailment of Sore Mouth or Sore Throat. If not quickly cured, you are in danger of contracting more serious or even fatal malady, such as Croup, Quinsy, Tonsillitis or Diphtheria. Nothing in the world will cure Sore Throat or Sore Mouth so quickly and so surely as TONSILINE because TONSILINE is the one remedy especially made for that purpose. It has never failed.

You'll need TONSILINE one of these days, or some night when the drug store is closed—better have a bottle ready at home when you need it most. 25 and 50 cents. The Tonsiline Co. Canton, Ohio.

FILLED MANY TIMES

Many Persons Here Benefitted by the "Vegetable Prescription" and Druggists are Kept Busy.

That the readers of this paper appreciate advice when given in good faith is plainly demonstrated by the fact that one well-known local pharmacy filled the "vegetable prescription" many times within the past two weeks. Most of these folks naturally bought the ingredients only and mixed them at home. The announcement of this simple, harmless mixture has certainly accomplished much in reducing the great many cases of kidney complaint and rheumatism here, relieving pain and misery, especially among the older population, who are always suffering more or less with bladder and urinary troubles, backache and particularly rheumatism.

Another well known druggist asks us to continue the announcement of the prescription. It is doing so much real good here, he continues that it would be a crime not to do so. It can not be repeated too often, and further states many cases of remarkable cures wrought.

The following is the prescription of simple ingredients, making a harmless, inexpensive compound which any person can prepare by shaking well in a bottle: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Any first-class drug store will sell this small amount of each ingredient, and the dose for adults is one teaspoonful to be taken after each meal and again at bedtime. There is enough here to last for one week, if taken according to directions. Good results will be apparent from the first few doses.

ASHBROOK'S SPEECH

as strongly as he knew how a favorable consideration of this bill.

He did, and permit me to read the President's letter:

The White House, Washington, January 31, 1908.
Hon. Henry C. Loudenslager, Chairman Committee on Pensions, House of Representatives.

My Dear Sir: The enclosed letter from Congressman Ashbrook explains itself. I have seen Herbert O. Kohr, the man to whom the pension is asked. He served for six years in the Regular Army, both in the Philippines and in Cuba, and has an honorable record. He then went into private life; was engaged in a public work at Oldwine, Iowa, and while engaged in duty a dynamite explosion caused him to lose both eyes, his left arm, and otherwise maiming him, so that he is absolutely helpless for life. He is dependent upon charity. If we had proper laws as to employers' liability, a man thus disabled by a dynamite explosion would be pensioned for life anyhow. As we have no such proper laws, I earnestly hope that the Pension Committee will grant him a pension. I would do the same for any man who has served well in the Army of the United States and who afterwards while working hard for his living is disabled for life by an accident which, if our laws were proper, would also mean that he was pensioned for life. I earnestly press his claim.

Sincerely yours,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
President of the United States.

What has been done or what will be done? It looks like for the present the obdurate chairman would rule, notwithstanding the merits of the claim.

Notwithstanding President Roosevelt wrote the chairman of the committee, "I earnestly hope that the Pension Committee will grant him a pension." Herbert O. Kohr is not only honestly entitled to a pension, but every other soldier with like record and unfortunate condition.

Does not the President say: I would do the same for any man who has served well in the Army of the United States and who afterwards, while working hard for his living, is disabled for life by an accident which, if our laws were proper, would also mean that he was pensioned for life.

The President is right in his advocacy of an employers' liability law, and I hope to be able to vote for this law.

But, Mr. Chairman, such a law passed now or at any other time in the future would bring no relief to the already unfortunate victims of accident and disaster.

Every soldier of all the wars and their widows and dependent children ought to be fairly, justly, and liberally dealt with.

To my notion the greatest curse of Congress is the code of rules, both in the House and in the committee. I recognize the necessity of rules for the transaction of business and the control of all bodies. But rules should not deprive a Member and his constituency of their inherent rights, nor should it serve to defeat the ends of justice. (Applause.)

The veterans of the civil war will soon be gone, the last camp fire will be out. While they are living let this Government provide for them sufficient, at least, that they may be comfortably housed, clothed, and fed.

If to do this it is necessary to cut out the building of a battle ship or two each year, a few public buildings, or even reduce the standing army, do so. (Applause.)

I voted last Saturday to increase the pay of city carriers of a certain grade from $1.00 to $1.20, because I believe many, very many, subordinate salaries are entirely too low, although I felt that the increase more justly belongs to other grades and the faithful rural carriers, who must keep a team and make long hauls over good roads and bad for $900 per annum; while his big city brother will hereafter get $1,200 for lighter work and shorter hours.

But why did Congress rush to the relief of these letter carriers and remain indifferent to such meritorious bills as the Sherwood dollar-a-day bill?

Is it because the old soldier is looked upon as having less political influence?

Nearly every Member was in his seat when the amendment to increase the salaries of the city letter carriers was being considered.

When the gentleman from Ohio (General Sherwood) ably argued for the passage of his bill three-fourths of the Members were conspicuous by their absence. I admit that seven Republicans were present and heard the old warrior plead for his comrades. (Applause on Democratic side.)

This is a poor way to inspire patriotism. It leads us to inquire, Does it pay to be a hero?

Don't turn these old veterans out to die like a worn-out horse.

Give those who, by their sacrifices and bravery, made this nation great, rich, and powerful their just reward.

Should the war clouds ever again threaten us, then will the young men follow the example of their patriotic fathers and forefathers and rally around the flag as old old (?)

And so, Mr. Chairman, I appeal again that our pension laws and rules of the Pension Committee be so amended that all may secure and receive without further unnecessary delay that which is justly due them.

May the policy of a square deal be practiced as earnestly and as strongly as it is today preached. In conclusion I use the words of the President, "I earnestly press their claims." (Loud applause on the Democratic side.)

PROSPECT MILLS BURN.

Prospect, O., March 24.—The elevator and mills of the Prospect National Mill company caught fire from an overheated bearing in the burr room about 6 o'clock last evening and were destroyed, with 20,000 bushels of wheat. There was a loss of $60,000 and small insurance. J. D. Owens of Merion is president, and John W. Jones of Columbus, vice president of the company.

The above mill was formerly owned by Fred C. Sites of this city, who operated it for some time, disposing of it to Mr. Owens and associates about three years ago.

DEPLORABLE CASE

BROUGHT BEFORE JUVENILE COURT BY YOUNG GIRL'S MOTHER.

Defendant Files Answer in Hull-Hawkins Case—Circuit Court Cases. Commissioners View Ditch.

A deplorable case came before the juvenile court Tuesday. It was the case of the State of Ohio against Mrs. Sarah Thompson, the mother, and her twelve year old daughter, Ruth, who was charged with habitual truancy, incorrigibility and immorality in writing obscene notes to white boys. The mother is a very estimable woman and has done everything in her power to correct the evil habits of the girl, but without avail. The girl's father has been dead for some time. Judge Bristol, after hearing evidence, was convinced that the child was extremely bad and ordered her to be sent to the Girls' Industrial Home at Delaware.

Commissioners View Ditch.
The court commissioners were engaged Tuesday viewing the site of the new ditch in Union township, petitioned for by W. Bush and others. This ditch is to be seven miles in length and the estimated cost of the project is $50,000.

In Circuit Court.
The case of Charles H. Kibler vs. The City of Newark was tried and judgment was given by the judge of the Circuit Court. The suit is brought to restrain the collection of a sewer assessment on North Fourth street. Plaintiff says that the council, in making the assessment, disregarded the section of the statute which provides that no lots shall be assessed that do not need local drainage or which are already provided therewith. That they disregarded their duty assessing upon the whole of plaintiff's land to the depth on average of 550 feet from North Fourth street. That the council disregarded the rule that the costs and expenses should be per foot front, according to benefits. He therefore claims that the assessment is invalid. Charles H. Kibler; Bolton.

The case of A. J. Wilson, et al. vs. Margaret A. Hill, et al., was argued and submitted to the Circuit court, on a demurrer. Plaintiff asks the court for instructions in regard to the distribution of certain moneys in his hands. Rees, Kibler & Montgomery, Forry.

Many Cases Disposed Of.

During the January term of the Common Pleas court 160 cases have been disposed of, greatly reducing the number of suits that would have otherwise confronted the court at the opening of the April term. When the term opened there were 553 on the trial docket, and when the April term will open this will have been reduced to 517.

Deputy Clerk E. M. Larason has just completed the preparation for the April term docket.

Defendant Files Answer.

The case of El Hull vs. C. J. Hawkins is likely to prove an interesting one. The defendant, by his attorneys, Kibler & Montgomery, has filed his answer, in which he denies that he is indebted to the plaintiff in any sum and asks to recover the balance due him by reason of breach of contract on the part of Hull. The defendant says that he was employed to prepare plans and specifications for a six story cement block building for Hull and that Hull afterwards changed his plans and refused to carry out his contract.

Damage Case.

The case of Phoebe Hottinger vs. E. T. Rugg & Co., is being heard before Squire M. O. Nash and a jury. This is an action to recover damages for injuries sustained while the plaintiff was at work in defendant's factory, one of her arms being caught in a set of cogs. Smythe & Smythe and Russell & Horner, attorneys for the plaintiff, and Kibler & Montgomery for the defendant.

Foreclosure Proceedings.

The case of the Mechanics' Building and Loan company of Mansfield, against James E. Rose and others of this city, has just been commenced in the Common Pleas court. This is a foreclosure proceeding and involves a valuable piece of real estate on which there are at present six new dwellings. The property is located in Franklin's addition on Garrettsville and Orchard streets. Originally the mortgage covered a large tract of land, but several parcels of property having been sold the original loan has been scaled down about one-half.

DOANE GYM GIRLS

GAVE AN EXHIBITION OF THEIR WORK TO LARGE AUDIENCE MONDAY EVENING.

Junior B. Y. P. U. of Granville Celebrated Fourteenth Anniversary Dandy Dances Tonight.

On Monday evening an exhibition of the gymnastic work was given in Doane gym by the girls. A large audience was present and the work of Miss Jones was greatly appreciated. Much work and time has been spent in that department during the year and very much has been accomplished. The following program was given:

Grand March, All.
Club Drill, Seniors and Juniors.
Baby Polka, Beginning Preparatory.

Hamberg Drill, Sophomores.
Apparatus Work, All.
Pizzicati Dumb Bell Drill, Beginning Preparatory.

Irish Jig, Advanced Preparatory.
Oberholzer Wand Drill, Seniors and Juniors.

Games, Preparatory.
Klappdams, Sophomores.
English Extension Drill, Advanced Preparatory.

Matinee Waltz, Seniors and Juniors.
Military Tactics, Sophomores.

The Junior B. Y. P. U. of Granville celebrated its 14th anniversary on Sunday in the Baptist church. The program consisted of music and remarks from a great many of the town members, while letters were read that had been received from several of the old leaders. Regrets were expressed that no word had been heard from Mr. Lindon, the founder of the Junior B. Y. P. U. in the Baptist Sunday school of Granville. Mr. Lindon was a former student of Denison and was a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He was an enthusiastic Christian worker and hopes are entertained that he will be heard from this week. A number of the old leaders, including Mrs. Kate Heines, of this place, and Mr. Frank Amos of Cambridge, were present and both made short addresses. An anniversary collection was taken up.

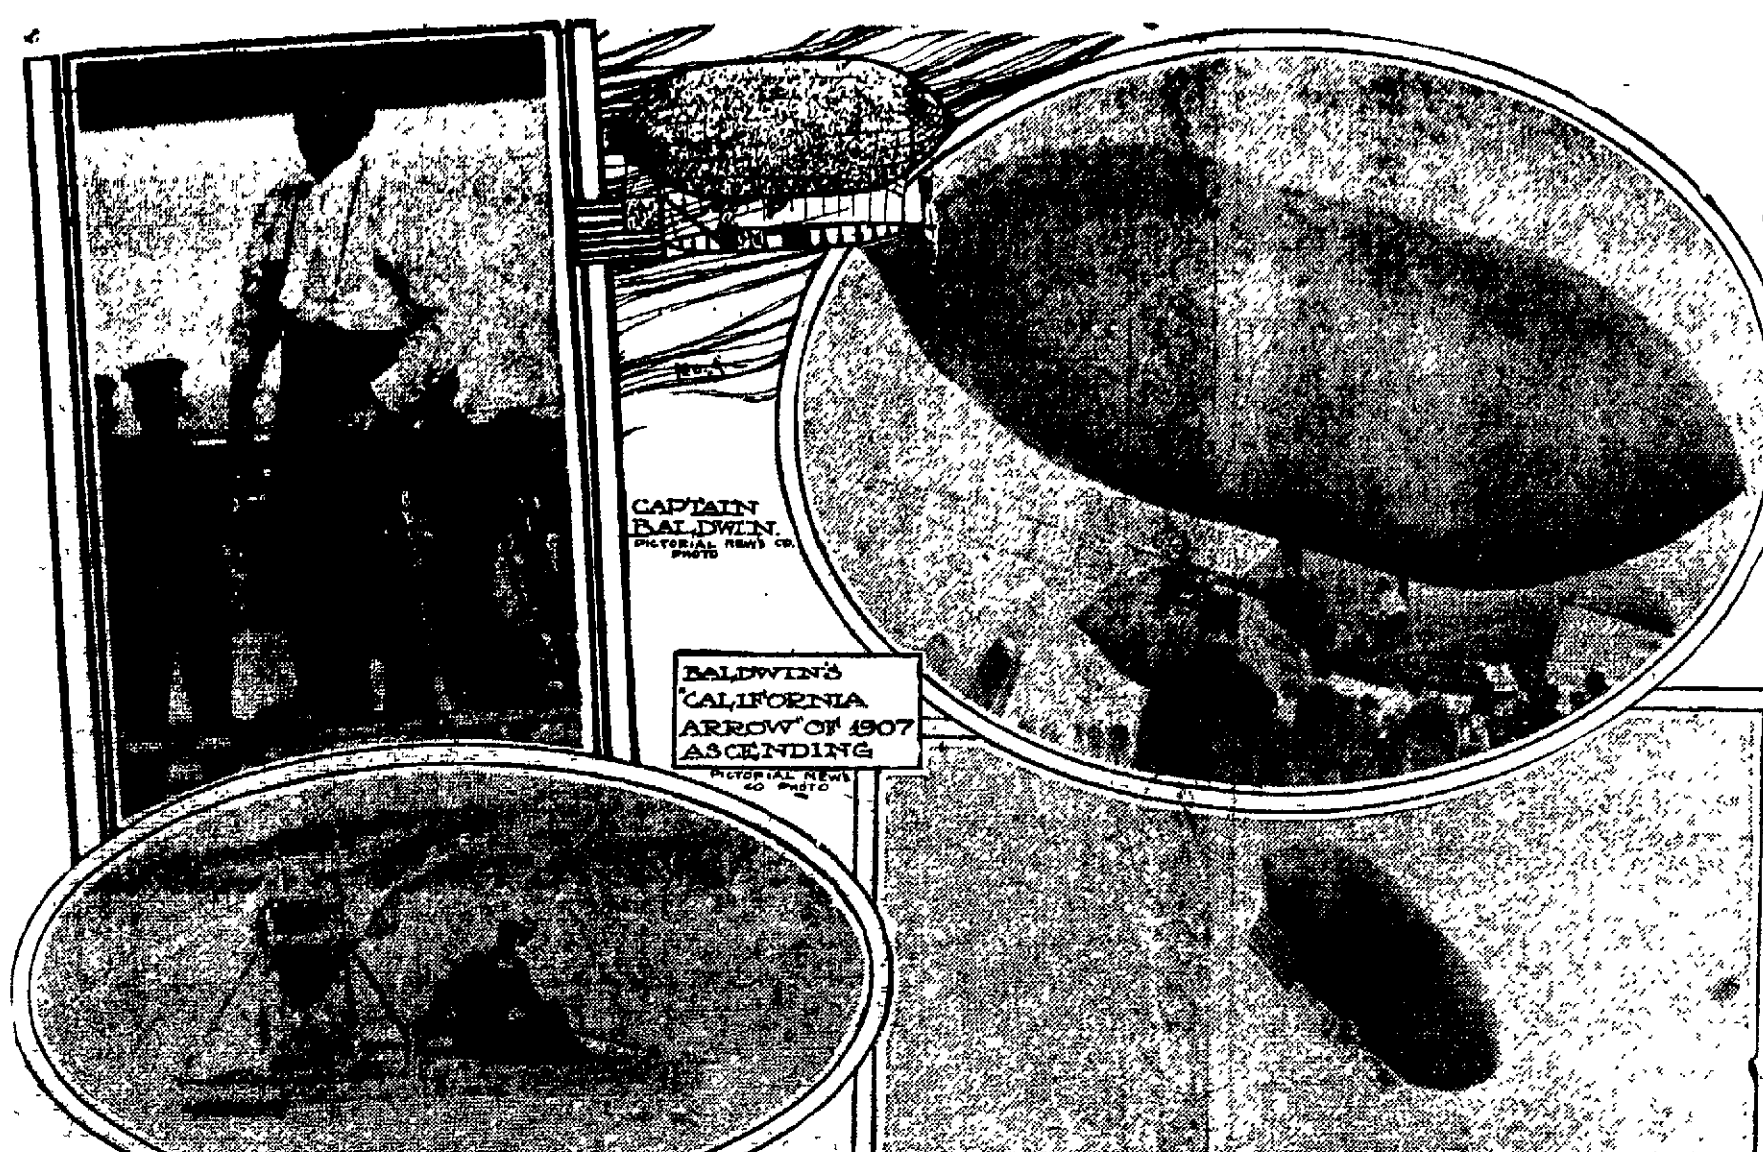

Everything is now in readiness for the big show to be given tonight at the Opera House by the Denison Dandy Dances and the indications are that the boys will be greeted by a crowded house. They have worked faithfully this spring in their endeavor to produce something new, and several delightful surprises will be sprung during the entertainment.

CAPT. BALDWIN, AWARDED CONTRACT FOR FIRST AERIAL CRAFT EVER NEGOTIATED FOR BY GOVERNMENT.

TESTING AN AIRSHIP BOAT, PULLED BY MOTOR, BY USE OF AN ICEBOAT ON LAKE KEDUA NEAR HAMMOND, IND.

When the new dirigible balloon recently contracted for by the United States government floats into service a few months hence as the first craft of the War Department's contemplated aerial fleet it will write certain epochal chapters in the history of aeronautics. It will represent, too, the materialization of experiences of a quarter century gathered by its builder, Thomas Scott Baldwin, in practically every state of the union and in every corner of the globe. It will embody the results of wisdom gained in a romantic career devoted year after year to "fighting the air" hand to hand mastering atmospheric powers and whims by actual contact.

Its perfectly-shaped gas bag, with its length of 84 feet, will comprise a monster envelope formed of silken cloth differing from any material heretofore used for this purpose.

At its head, creating a vacuum in the air which will suck the craft along at a speed ranging from 20 to 27 miles an hour, twin screw propellers will revolve in opposite directions on a single shaft. This will present the utilization of a principle utterly new in airship construction and one which for years has been branded by experts as impracticable. But the persistence of a professional aeronaut has reduced this idea to practicality, and its utilization will overcome the dangers, heretofore always present, of

LENA RIVERS.

Of Rose Lubonn in the play of "Lena Rivers," to be seen at the Auditorium next Tuesday evening, March 24, the Washington, D. C. Post, says: "Judging from the decided expressions of approval and the generous applause of the large audience at the first presentation of 'Lena Rivers' at the Majestic last night, Miss Rose Lubonn has caught the popular fancy in a dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' novel of that name. The play is written in a prologue and three acts, and briefly, is the story of the life of Lena Rivers, whose mother is dead, and whose father deserted his family while Lena was a baby. The child is taken from the surroundings of abject poverty by aristocratic relatives, among whom her life is one of much unhappiness until she is lifted from her unfortunate surroundings by Durward Belmont.

Miss Lubonn as Lena acted her part with vivacity and ingenuously which won her audience at once. Her transition from the untutored country girl of the prologue to the more cultured and developed young lady of the remaining acts was natural and constituted a finished bit of acting.

You can always tell good advice from bad. The good is never given until it is asked for.

Few men really believe that they get all that's coming to them.

Some people are so fond of sympathy that they even take a melancholy delight in being the under dog.

BALDWIN'S CALIFORNIA ARROW OF 1907 SAILING ABOUT THE STATE CAPITOL BUILDING AT JACKSON, MISS.

propeller torsion wrenching and extremely low price of $6,750. Practical knowledge, taught by actual experience, will do the rest.

Its peculiar design, with its monster gas bag presenting a constantly varying diameter, will follow lines which will make the head resistance exactly equal to the atmospheric friction on the sides—the "skin friction," as it is called in aeronautic parlance—and this it is predicted, will make it the most stable and most evenly balanced dirigible yet constructed.

Its square shaped framework, capable of carrying two men, and suspended from the gas envelope with netting of new but tried material, will present features somewhat out of the ordinary in aerial craft construction. Of eleven bidders Captain Thomas Scott Baldwin—the title was given him when his piloting of spherical balloons and his daring parachute leaps were applauded by the American citizen and the European people, and bemedalled and praised by European royalty—was awarded the contract for the construction of this first aerial craft ever negotiated for by the government of the United States. Patriotism and a desire to write his name as the builder of the first ship of the government's proposed aerial fleet

CONFIDENCE

The Base of Business Credit—Good Credit is the Base of Prosperity.

In order to have prosperity we must have confidence in ourselves, our neighbors and our national life. We must do something substantial and urge others to do likewise. We cannot afford to wait for something to turn up. There is always something waiting the progressive man of today. We must avail ourselves of the opportunities as they present themselves.

In another ten days the lots in the Flory Homestead Addition will be ready for sale. To those who want homes, and to those who want to invest in good residence property, this is the only available down town property where you can buy and build as you would like.

See our salesman, F. H. Keenen, and make your arrangements as the desirable location of these lots will make them sell rapidly.

CONNECTICUTHOME OF FRIENDLESS

Will be Erected at Spokane by Organized Labor—The 150,000 Club Will Complete It.

Spokane, Wash., March 24.—Organized labor will lay every brick, stone and tile, drive every nail and wield the paint brush, as well as do the roofing and other work on a structure, costing $40,000, to be erected in Spokane this spring for the Home of the Friendless. Business and professional men and members of the various unions, in Spokane are to raise the fund needed to erect the building and furnish it from cellar to garret. Every able-bodied man in Spokane will be invited to contribute one day's work or its equivalent in cash, while the 150,000 club of which Arthur W. Jones, an official of the Cigar-makers' Union, is secretary, undertakes to subscribe a dollar for everyone raised by the unions and business men.

Asa V. Braderick, chairman of a special committee of the 150,000 club has set aside Thursday, April 2, when 100 representative members of the organization, which has 3,200 names on its rolls, will make a whirlwind campaign in Spokane for funds. Soliciting committees will also be sent to Cheney, Medical Lake, Mead, Chatteroy, Deer Park, Spangle, Rockford and other towns in Spokane county.

The proposal to donate a day's work came from H. E. Hermanson, secretary of the Stone Masons' International Union No. 4, of Spokane, and was quickly taken up by the 150,000 club and other trades and labor unions, including Federal No. 11-624, Thomas Malony, secretary of which, said:

"The Home for the Friendless is an institution for which the workingmen of Spokane are willing to donate their services or money. It is for the benefit of their children, also for widows and orphans who are unable to support themselves because of age or sickness. The orphans of the wealthy are not likely to need the provisions of such a home, but for the workingman, who depends upon his labor for the support of himself and his family, the institution makes a direct appeal."

Mr. Braderick said that if the club and unions had the opportunity of reaching every man in the country with their proposal, the amount required would be subscribed over several times, as there is not one who

What competition and the spirit of rivalry, ship for ship, and the attraction of money prizes have done for the naval gunnery will doubtless be duplicated in naval engineering if the competitive system in coal and oil consumption adopted for the fleet on will refuse to give assistance to a charity of this character. He added: "How little it means to each one and yet in the aggregate what a great amount of good could be accomplished with this money. Another great factor entering into this popular subscription will be the general interest and sympathy for the welfare of the home in the future, for the reason that every one who subscribes to the fund will always be interested in the cause, regardless of the amount of his contribution.

Through the combined efforts of organized labor and the 150,000 club the widows and orphans of the city and county will be better protected and provided for in the future than they have ever been before, and I feel that the interest will continue.

"We will have a general committee of 100 men in the field early in the morning of April 2, and a systematic campaign will be made. The committee will send squads into every block of the city, and every man will be solicited.

"We are all much gratified over the action taken by the unions in Spokane, and I may add that every member is enthusiastic. For every dollar subscribed by the workingmen the 150,000 club will add another to the fund. Every salaried man, whether identified with a union or other organization, will be asked to subscribe.

"We believe that the men in the factories, mills, stores and other business houses realize their responsibility in this cause and that each will donate a day's work to the fund without further question when the soliciting committees make their rounds."

The 150,000 club has been signally successful in its campaigns for funds, the last being the raising of $65,000 toward the completion of the Young Men's Christian Association's home in Spokane. The structure and furnishings cost $185,000. In addition to its rooms, gymnasium and the cruise to the Pacific is extended by the Navy Department to the entire service. When the fleet arrived at Magdalena Bay a computation was possible of the coal and oil consumption of each ship, and the comparative engineering efficiency of the vessels will be determined upon that basis, together with the results of maximum speed trials. The satisfaction of work well done, if it does prove so, is the only reward held out to the men of the force below—the firemen, water tenders, machinists and coal classes there is a department for the training of young men and boys. This was endowed by Col. D. P. Jenkins, a pioneer of Spokane, who set aside $5,000 for the equipment and teaching staff. The Jenkins institute was opened two months ago and has today 200 students on its rolls. Many of these are young men, employed during the day.

FOR PIMPLES, TOO

New Discovery Cures Eczema and Eradicates Minor Skin Troubles Over Night.

A few months ago the dispenser of poslam, the new discovery for the cure of eczema, decided to allow the druggists of the country to handle it. Previous to that time it could only be obtained direct from the laboratories.

Since the change in the method of distribution, poslam has met with the most phenomenal success of anything introduced to the drug trade in the last 20 years. All leading druggists, including Frank D. Hall, in Newark, are now carrying the special 50-cent size recently adopted, also the $2 jar.

This great success is not surprising when it is remembered that, in eczema cases, poslam stops the itching with first application, proceeds to heal immediately, and cures chronic cases in a few weeks. In minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, acne, herpes, blotches, rash, etc., results show after an overnight application. Experimental samples of poslam are sent to anyone by mail free of charge, by the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.

SIMPLE WASH CURES ECZEMA.

Itching, Burning Skin Disease Routed Without Use of Injurious Drugs.

Great inventors often have been praised for surrendering the secrets of their discoveries. Practically the same thing happened in the medical world in the case of Dr. Decatur D. Dennis, the eminent skin specialist of Chicago.

Dr. Dennis in his own office practice discovered that pure vegetable oil of wintergreen, properly mixed with other simple remedies was practically a sure specific for Eczema, psoriasis, barber's itch, salt rheum, and other itching skin diseases. But the oil of wintergreen alone was found ineffective. It required other mild ingredients such as glycerine and thymol compounded with the wintergreen to produce the real eczema cure.

This compounded D. D. D. Prescription positively takes away the itch at once—the instant it is applied to the skin. This vegetable liquid does away with deleterious drugs so long used in an attempt to doctor the blood, whereas modern science has determined that eczema is first and all the time a skin disease.

If you want to know more about the merits of D. D. D. Prescription, call at our store. We vouch for this remedy. Frank D. Hall, druggist, N. Park Place, Newark, Ohio.

Evans has enough faith in the present experiment to believe that it will be a success and that the department will provide the prizes. The competition at present in progress includes not only the battle ships, but also the torpedo destroyers.

WOULD HOLD
JOINT MANEUVERS

In Case Appropriation Is Not Made Ohio Guardsman Will Have Brigade Encampment.

General officers of the Ohio National Guard are just now deeply interested in the efforts of the friends of the state military establishments to reinstate in the United States military appropriation bill the item of $1,000,000 for the purpose of holding regular army and national guard maneuvers at Fort Harrison in Indiana. The item was cut out of the bill in committee, but those who are in touch with the situation believe that it will be reinserted and they are leaving no stone unturned to accomplish this end.

In case the necessary money is not appropriated, the Ohio guardsmen will hold their annual encampments by brigades, according to the present plans, at Camp Perry, probably in August. In that case there will be the usual routine and camp training, with plenty of rifle practice thrown in, but in case the money is appropriated and the joint maneuvers are held, not all of the Ohio guard will participate. Six regiments of infantry, two troops of cavalry, one battery, one corps of engineers and the signal corps will go to Fort Harrison. The Sixth regiment will stay at home to participate in the G. A. R. encampment in Toledo, and the Second also has some other affair on the summer program.

AGITATION RENEWED

For Early Adjournment by Special Interests.

BIG MEASURES STILL PENDING

House Will Hammer Away On the Bank Inspection Bill This Week Until It Passes That Body—Limit Has Been Reached On Temperance Legislation—All Probes Proceeding Vigorously.

Columbus, O., March 24.—(Special.)—Renewed talk of "early adjournment" is heard again in the corridors of the state house and in the smoking rooms of the house and senate. Fear lurks somewhere that this legislature will enact some legislation that will be inimical to "the interests," but fear of that sort is not justified by anything the legislature has done so far. The county option bill is the only big measure fully settled so far this session, and it is significant that the agitation for "early adjournment" began immediately after that bill was enacted. "Pass the appropriation bills and go home" was the word that was passed around by the "early birds" as soon as the county option bill was out of the way. It was supposed at that time that the ulterior motive back of that suggestion was to head off the initiative and referendum; but the holding up of the Atwell initiative and referendum resolution till after the Republican convention and the action of the convention in not only refusing to endorse the Atwell resolution, but also declaring in favor of repealing the Longworth act passed to facilitate the ratification of constitutional amendments at the polls, showed that there was some other impelling desire to get rid of the legislature at the earliest possible day.

Then it was supposed that Cox wanted to shoo the statesmen home before they could create another investigating commission to probe his rotten record. Speaker Eagleson favored Cox all he could in the selection of the house members of the new probe committee. But because Eagleson didn't by some superhuman means yet unknown to presiding officers of

JOHN R. FREINER,
Author of Ohio's Two-Cent Fare Law,
Who Now Seeks to Create a State Tax Board.

a state legislature prevent the adoption of the senate's resolution by the house, Cox soured of Eagleson and gave him only a part of the Hamilton county vote in convention on the ballots for lieutenant governor. The resignation of Welker of Stark from the committee on account of the storm of indignation following the speaker's announcement of the house members of the Cincinnati probe committee, gave Eagleson a chance to get partially even with Cox for his throw-down on account of the Cox-Burton deal to nominate Treadway for lieutenant governor, and Eagleson took advantage of the opportunity to name Lybarger of Coshocton, a red-hot Forakerite, in Welker's place. Doubtless Speaker Eagleson would have been delighted if he could have named all three of the house members of that committee after the convention. But with the probes all named and ready to at once more lift the lid on which Cox sits in Cincinnati, the agitation for early adjournment still goes on.

No reason is known now why anybody should be so anxious to get rid of the legislature unless it should turn out to be the wish of the state officials who are undergoing an investigation that is getting more and more uncomfortable and embarrassing to them as it goes deeper and deeper into their official acts of omission, commission and remission. All the investigations under way were vigorously resumed Monday.

The adjournment date now proposed by the "early birds" is April 20, only four weeks distant. How the legislature can dispose of its big measures by that time, to say nothing of the many minor measures that are congesting the calendars in both houses is beyond comprehension.

The Paine bill, passed by the house to give cities a modified federal form of government instead of the present cumbersome, top-heavy and expensive Cox system, saddled upon all the cities of Ohio by the special session of 1902, is still in senate committee undergoing some necessary changes.

A solution of the deadlock on primary election bills seems as far off as it was when the session began. The trick of the house committee on elections in reporting ostensibly the Huffman bill passed by the senate, but in reality the Bronson bill already passed by the house except that Senator Huffman's name was substituted for Mr. Bronson's name, has not mended matters any. Cox, Blewer, Brown and their subordinate bosses doubtless would like to have an early adjournment leaving primary election reform "up in the air," as it was at the end of the session two years ago.

All of the Stewart insurance bills prepared by a joint committee of the house and senate during the past year are still pending in the senate after having passed the house.

The general appropriation bill was not brought in by the house finance committee last week, and there is reason to suspect that the committee held back the bill to oblige those members who believe that the session should not be cut short with so much important business unfinished. It is known to be the intention of the senate to delay action on the appropriation bill so as to prevent premature adjournment should the bill be rushed through the house. There is bound to be a hitch on the appropriations, as there is but one general appropriation bill to be passed this session, a contingency the house finance committee does not care to aggravate.

The Thomas bank inspection bill, which passed the house two years ago and failed in the senate, will come up again in the house Tuesday of this week. There is no prospect of getting such a measure enacted before an early adjournment even though it passes the house this week. At least one whole day and probably two days will be occupied with this measure, the sections being considered serially by the house in committee of the whole. The bill can not reach the senate this week in time for any further action by that body than to refer it to the senate committee on banks and banking, of which Senator Beatty, a banker, is chairman. Senator Beatty will urge several important amendments, one of which is provision for the guarantee of bank deposits. He will make a fight to have such a provision incorporated in the Thomas bill, instead of trying to pass one of the bank deposit bills now pending in each branch, but acted on by neither. This is certain to lead to a fight, and if Senator Beatty is right in his statement that the senate will not pass the Thomas bill without the deposit guarantee provision, the fate of that measure at this session is in doubt. Senator Beatty considers the Thomas-bank bill weaker in its present form than it was two years ago. He calls attention to the omission of any penalty for violation of the proposed law by banks already in existence, and asserts it fixes punishment for violation only by banks hereafter to be incorporated under its provisions. He thinks the provision for inspection, also, is inadequate, for the Thomas bill now requires but one inspection to be made each year. Senator Beatty thinks there should be four inspections annually, and he will endeavor to have the bill so amended.

Disclosures so far resulting from the investigation of the state treasury and state auditor's department by a senate probe committee, are being cited by Representative Freiner of Vinton county as showing the necessity for passing his bill to create a state tax board of three members, to be appointed by the governor, which body will take the place of all the various boards of taxation and tax remission of which the state auditor is a member. The house committee on taxation decided last week to recommend its passage. Mr. Freiner will make an effort to have it made a special order for early consideration, fearing that it will not be reached this session if it is sent to the calendar to come up in regular order. Mr. Freiner's bill was proposed by the special tax commission which overhauled the state's tax system last year. This may be one of the measures which is causing a demand from certain quarters for an early adjournment.

No further temperance legislation is likely, although three drastic bills are pending. One of these is the Van

Dusen bill in the house, to put out of business those saloonkeepers who violate any of the liquor laws. The Woods bill to so amend the search and seizure act as to prevent the delivery of mail orders in dry territory, to prevent the organization of social clubs with buffet attached in dry territory, and even going so far as to make it unlawful for anybody or any organization to serve anything stronger than water or coffee at a "Dutch lunch," is still hanging fire in the house because of "a disinclination to enact any more legislation on the temperance question"—something must be left for future sessions. For like reasons the Kinsman bill in the senate to permit women to vote at local option elections will halt there, leaders of temperance sentiment in the senate being averse to any more legislation along that line. It is claimed now that this particular Kinsman bill was not introduced with the expectation that it would reach a vote but merely to give the woman suffragists a chance to express themselves. It is true there was a large meeting in the senate chamber last week in the interest of the bill at which arguments were made in favor of extending women the suffrage in temperance matters, but the enthusiasm was confined to the women themselves and the few men who sympathize in the movement. By the majority of the members of the legislature it was not taken seriously.

RALLIES

HELD BY SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF LICKING COUNTY HAVE CLOSED.

Meetings Productive of Good Results and Much Interest Was Manifested in Them.

Sunday, March 22, ended a series of Sunday school rallies in which the Sunday school workers of many townships were made to realize more fully their obligations and to see more clearly the path of duty.

The county executive committee was, as in the past on the lookout for the best things going, and are to be congratulated on securing Mrs. Phebe Curtis, of Columbus, Ohio, State Secretary of the Ohio Sunday School Association, and Mr. Wilson A. Holmes, of Granville, state Sunday school secretary for the Baptists of Ohio, to spend five days in the county in the interests of the cause in general.

The grand feast was begun at Utica March 18, when a full house of attentive listeners greeted the speakers at two sessions.

The next point visited was Croton, and following it came Johnstown, at which place the Rev. David Rempster of Granville, gave a most inspiring address in addition to those given by Mrs. Curtis and Mr. Holmes. Earl R. Buell, well known to Licking county Sunday school people, conducted the music in a manner all his own. Alexandria was the next scene of action. Here Mrs. Curtis and Superintendent Miller of the Fourth street Disciple school of Newark, had charge of the meetings. On Sunday, the last of these great meetings closed with two splendid sessions at Etta.

In all five townships were visited, and some twenty addresses given. The county secretary, H. G. Gillespie, of Granville, was present at all these meetings except the one at Etta, urging the schools to take note of the coming county convention at Hebron, May 22 and 23, and calling attention to the fact that no school in the county can afford to fail to have delegates to that convention. When he suggested that a number of speakers of the type of H. B. Baker of Zanesville, had been secured to give addresses all were impressed with its significance.

$25,000 TO BE PLEDGED BEFORE WORK BEGINS

First Church Committee at Meeting Held Monday Night Discusses Building Plans.

The committee of twenty-five members appointed by the congregation of the First Presbyterian church last Sunday, held a meeting Monday night to discuss the matter of building a new church.

William E. Painter was made chairman and Arthur C. Hatch secretary of the committee.

After a full discussion of the proposition, the committee unanimously decided to proceed with the plan for building after the sum of $25,000 is subscribed by responsible parties. In other words, it was the sense of the committee to secure pledges for not less than $25,000 before beginning any other work towards church construction.

The chair was authorized to appoint a committee of three, after conferring with the trustees of the church, to see what can be subscribed during the week.

There was some discussion of the building plans submitted at the congregational meeting on Sunday, but the adoption of plans for the building was deferred until the committee learns where it stands financially. A second meeting will be held next Monday night, March 30, by which time a preliminary canvass will have been made and the committee will be in better position to decide how to proceed further with the work.

Mr. Vernon Redding, the Mansfield architect, who prepared the plans for the high school addition, now building, has submitted a sketch which may now be seen in the window of the Newark Trust company bank. Mr. Redding estimates that the church which he suggests to the committee, can be built for about $35,000.

This great tonic medicine and blood purifier gives quick relief in all stomach, liver and kidney complaints and the misery of lame back. Sold under guarantee at E. D. Hall's drug store.

NATIONAL BISCUIT

Encourages Employees to Buy Its Stock—Company Has Succeeded But Not by Trust Methods.

The National Biscuit company, which has a branch in Newark, of which Mr. W. S. Weiant is manager, following the lead of the Steel Trust, has encouraged its employees to purchase its stock, and of its 7,500 stockholders 2395 are employees. It appears by the annual report. Under a plan allowing employees to acquire the preferred shares for which they pay by installments, 7939 shares have been secured, exclusive of a very large amount of both common and preferred stock held by the directors, officers and principal managers. Such a plan of making the men who work for a corporation its part-owners, vitally interested in its prosperity, should have beneficial results. How much of the success of the National Biscuit Company is due to this partnership it is impossible to tell, but it is not well to underestimate it.

The company is ten years old, and in the period of its existence has increased its annual sales from $34,000,000 when it was started to nearly $42,000,000 in 1907. Here is an interesting paragraph from the report dealing with this topic, which it gives us pleasure to reproduce: "Our increase in sales is not due to the fact that there is a less number of rival manufacturers of biscuit than there was in the first year of the existence of this company. On the contrary, the number has increased. We have frequently stated that the policy of this company was not to buy out competition, nor attempt, by a ruinous war of prices, to crush the same, and to that policy we have steadfastly adhered to. We offer our goods for sale at a fixed price and upon stated terms, available to all grocers."

To succeed not by the trust method of ruining competitors but by making the best goods, and by extending their sale by all fair means of advertising, that is good American policy, and one that the National Biscuit Company has followed. Everyone is familiar with its advertising and its products. The Advocate has for several years advertised the National Biscuit Company's product extensively, and only a few weeks ago began the 1908 contract which is larger than ever. The National Biscuit managers believe in the liberal use of space in live newspapers: they believe in telling the truth in their advertising and in presenting their forceful statement in an attractive way. The splendid business methods adopted by the advertising department of this great industry have much to do with the success achieved by it.

OF INTEREST TO CORN GROWERS

MANY COUNTIES OVER STATE HAVE EFFECTED PERMANENT ORGANIZATIONS.

Corn Circulars Can be Obtained at the State Experiment Station at Wooster.

The executive committee of the O. C. A. A., takes pleasure in reporting to you that 25 out of the 88 counties of the state, have already effected permanent local organizations, and that a number more will probably effect such organizations. The memberships of these organizations ranges from as low as 10 to more than 200. There is every reason at this time to expect that at the end of the first quarter, April 1st, when the first official report will be requested, 35 or 40 counties will have been organized with a total membership of more than 1500.

Twenty-seven farmers, instead of ten, as required, took the short course in corn judging. The committee on corn trains, with Dean H. C. Price, O. S. U., Columbus, has made arrangements for several trains to be run the last of the month. The committee on score card and corn judging, with C. G. Williams, O. A. E. S., Wooster, met at Columbus February 19 to consider and examine a class of ten weeks short course men in corn judging.

The committee on corn expositions is now being effected. The chairman of this committee will represent Ohio in connection with the next National Corn Exposition for which elaborate plans are now being made at Omaha, Nebraska. If secretaries will send a list of their association members to L. H. Goddard, secretary, Wooster, Ohio, he will send to each one a special circular regarding seed corn and the germination test, now in press, and other corn circulars in the next few weeks. County secretaries should also arrange at once with the secretaries of county fair boards for large premiums at the county fairs this fall.

All who want these corn circulars should give in their names at once for membership. Residents of Licking county should write or call on the county secretary, Charles C. Bong or President Frank B. Headley, if there is no representative of the association in your neighborhood.

Charity begins at home and is generally kept in the family.
